

Omnivores

1. Omnivores are animals that eat food of both PLANT and ANIMAL origin.
2. Are the next statements True or False? If false correct the statement.
  - Baboons are the biggest primates in Southern Africa
FALSE. Humans are the biggest primates.
  - Baby baboons are born pink.
FALSE. Baby baboons are born black with a pink faces.
  - When young baboons are older they ride on their father's back.
FALSE. Young baboons ride on their mother's back.
  - A Small spotted genet tail normally has a white tip.
TRUE.
3. What ecological role do genets play?
They play an important role in controlling the rodent population.
4. What does CREPASCULAR mean?
Animals that are active during DUSK and DAWN
5. Why are jackals seen as a problem in farming communities?
Jackals tend to kill livestock and have a negative impact on the farmers' profitability.